FREE SUMMER CONCERT SERIES RETURNS TO DOWNTOWN GREENVILLE

entertainment

GREENVILLE (SC) – Music fans can enjoy live musical entertainment all summer long at the South Carolina BLUE<sup>SM</sup> Reedy River Concerts. The free series returns to the TD Stage behind the Peace Center and will showcase an eclectic mix of local and regional musical entertainers, including the The Soulfeathers, The Wiredogs, Mystic Vibrations and True Blues. The summer series kicks off June 4 and runs every Wednesday through August from 7 p.m. – 9 p.m.

“As a member of the Greenville community, South Carolina BLUE is proud to support the Reedy River Concerts because music and the arts enrich our lives,” said Terry Peace, senior vice president at BlueCross BlueShield of South Carolina, an independent licensee of the Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association. South Carolina BLUE is the company’s retail center located at 1025 Woodruff Road in Magnolia Park. To learn more about South Carolina BLUE visit www.SCBlueRetailCenters.com.

Concert attendees are invited to come early, bring lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic. Pets are not allowed at City special events. Individuals consuming alcohol at the event must purchase a $1 wristband. For more information, visit events.greenvillesc.gov or follow the event on Facebook.
